

however, that no person shall have more than twenty-five votes at any election or in determining any question arising at such or any other meeting whatever number of shares such person may be entitled to," which amendment was read.

Mr. Kennedy then moved to amend the amendment by striking out the words 'twenty five,' and inserting 'twenty,' and the question was put on so amending the amendment and determined in the negative.

The question then recurred and was put on the amendment offered by Mr. Johnson, and determined in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr. Forrest the Senate then reconsidered the 1st section of the bill.

Mr. Forrest then moved to amend the 1st section, by striking out the word 'one' in the twenty second line, and inserting 'two,' and by inserting after the word 'dollars' in the same line, the words 'or such smaller sum as shall be sufficient to complete the road hereby authorised,' which amendment was read and assented to.

On the further reading of the bill Mr. Johnson moved to amend the same by striking out the following words, commencing in the 27th line of the 3d section, and ending in the 29th line of the same section, "and all the powers, rights and privileges vested by this act in the New Castle and Frenchtown Turnpike Rail Road Company, hereinafter incorporated;" which amendment was read and assented to.

Mr. Kennedy then moved to amend the bill by inserting after the word 'paid' in the 3d line of the 3d sec. 'on each share thereof,' and striking out the word 'therein,' which amendment was read and assented to.

On the further reading of the bill Mr. Forrest moved to amend the same by adding the following at the end of the 5th section, 'and if any road shall be hereafter authorised by the legislature or courts of this state, the direction of which shall lead across the rail road hereby authorised, it shall be the duty of the company in this act mentioned, so to construct or alter that part of the rail road as shall permit the passage of any road hereafter to be allowed by the legislature or courts of this state, at the expense of the county or person opening the same,' which amendment was read and assented to.

Mr. Heath then moved further to amend the bill by striking out the words 'seventy five' being the number of
